Notwithstanding the heavy frost of the preceding night, hosts of bees were at work yesterday among the chrysanthemums and other late flowers in the gardens in town. The little folk we were improving the shining hour," which, by the way, has been very numerous of late.

THE ORGANIZATIONS.—Multnomah Engine Company No. 2 held a meeting last evening, which was a large attendance. The question of Exempt Firemen's Benefit Association was discussed, and the object to be attained explained. It was moved and carried that the company go into the Association as a body. Only active members are eligible to membership. It was announced that the new organization would be incorporated at least not later than January 1, 1883. Several new members were admitted, and the following were elected officers for the ensuing year: Foreman, Wm. Wadhams; Assistant Foreman, C. H. Dodd; Secretary, C. H. Lewis; Treasurer, Wm. Wadhams; Collector, McCracken; Trustees, Foreman and Secretary, ex officio, and Harold Mackay was added to that number. The company has been extensively engaged in the trade of purchasing hose knowledge and experience, and the committee will also be instructed to purchase a hose carriage. The organization of the Multnomah Hose Company will be completed next week.
